The following information was requested on 20 March 2024 and clarified on 21 March 2024:

[Request on 20 March 2024]

I am writing to request information under the Freedom of Information Act, please can you provide the following?

1. The numbers of data breach claims the NHS has received between 2021-now (up to and including any data held for 2024) Can this be broken down by the number of claims notified per financial year?

1a) The number of claims per year broken down by successful/unsuccessful

1b) The amount cost of claims in part a) per year.

[We sought clarification on 20 March 2024]

Thank you for your request for information below.

We are aware you made a very similar request to some member Trusts and they have approached us for their claims data.

As NHS Resolution holds the claims data we can provide you with a Trust Level breakdown of what is requested below.

Please can you confirm that you would like this and if so, please can you contact the member Trusts you have also made the requests to and withdraw the request?

You can advise them that NHS Resolution will be providing you with a Trust level breakdown.

[You replied on 21 March 2024]

Thank you for your response.

Yes please, a trust level breakdown of the information would be great. I will withdraw other requests.

Our Response

Please note: We have recently changed the way we report on our FOIs to align better with our published documents. Streamlining our reporting on FOIs with our annual published reports may mean a variation in snapshot dates. This means this data may not align with previous similar requests and it may not be possible for you to compare this information with a previous request. For further information, please refer to <https://resolution.nhs.uk/resources/understanding-nhs-resolution-data>.

Please find attached the requested information. Please note claims notified/received and open are not guaranteed to be settled in the same year and can take many years to be concluded. Claims notified/received in any given year will often relate to incidents that have occurred many years prior.

Please note: The number of claims received does not mean that there were the same number of data breaches within the NHS. A single data breach can affect a large number of individuals and result in multiple claimants (i.e. 124 claims received in these years does not equate to 124 data breach incidents).

Due to the way in which data is extracted, it is also possible that the same claim may appear more than once in a dataset, across different year groups e.g. where the case has been closed (as nil damages payment), challenged, reopened and closed again at conclusion.

Please also note that the data shows a variation in the number of claims received & also in the numbers of cases closed per year, and costs attributed to those claims during this period. This is a reflection of the nature of individual claims received and resolved by NHS Resolution, which can vary significantly. As such, these fluctuations cannot be interpreted as trends.

For an explanation of the Non-clinical schemes referred to, please visit the following web page: Non-clinical schemes - NHS Resolution

Low Numbers

We have suppressed low figures as we believe that disclosure of information with this level of granularity is exempt under Section 40(2) by virtue of section 40(3A)(a) of the FOI Act, where disclosure to a member of the public would contravene one or more of the data protection principles. The data protection principles are set out in Article 5 of the General Data Protection Regulation. We take the view that it would not be fair or lawful (given the sensitive and confidential nature of the information held) to disclose such information, and any disclosure would therefore contravene the first data protection principle.

In some instances, the low numbers of claims (fewer than 5) in each category, the likelihood exists that individuals who are the subject of this information may be identified either from this information alone, or in combination with other available information. In addition to this, as this information is considered to be sensitive personal data (the data subjects' medical condition); NHS Resolution believes it has a greater responsibility to protect those individuals' identities, as disclosure could potentially cause damage and/or distress to those involved.

If you would like to know how data is categorised in our Claims database please see the following link: Glossary.

This concludes our response to your request.

If you are not satisfied with the service that you have received in response to your information request, it is open to you to make a complaint and request a formal review of our decisions. If you choose to do this, you should write to Tinku Mitra, Deputy Director of Corporate and Information Governance for NHS Resolution, within 28 days of your receipt of this reply. Reviews of decisions made in relation to information requests are carried out by a person who was not involved in the original decision-making about the request.

If you are not content with the outcome of your complaint, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a review of the decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner will not make a decision unless you have exhausted the local complaints procedure. The address of the Information Commissioner's Office is:
