The following information was requested on 7 November 2024:

Please could I get the number of contract disputes with GPs over the last three years, broken down by year?

And also any breakdown of what the contract disputes were about more specifically.

Our Response

Our published factsheets contain the breakdown of disputes.

You can find information for 2022/23 and 2023/24 here:

- Publication of Factsheet 6 for 2022/23 - NHS Resolution
- Factsheet 6: Primary Care Appeals statistics 2023/24 - NHS Resolution

Please, see data for 2021/22 attached below.

Data for the financial year 2024/25 is currently unavailable and will be published next year.

This concludes our response to your request.

If you are not satisfied with the service that you have received in response to your information request, it is open to you to make a complaint and request a formal review of our decisions. If you choose to do this, you should write to Tinku Mitra, Deputy Director of Corporate and Information Governance for NHS Resolution, within 28 days of your receipt of this reply. Reviews of decisions made in relation to information requests are carried out by a person who was not involved in the original decision-making about the request.

If you are not content with the outcome of your complaint, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a review of the decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner will not make a decision unless you have exhausted the local complaints procedure. The address of the Information Commissioner's Office is:
