The following information was requested on 10 October 2025:

Please provide, for 1 January 2015 to present, copies of:

- 1. Correspondence, briefing notes, minutes, or legal-strategy documents referencing the Northern Ireland Neurology Recall, patient-litigation handling, cross-border indemnity arrangements, or coordination with the Belfast Trust, DoH (NI), DHSC, or Government Legal Department.*
- 2. Any internal guidance or risk assessments concerning these claims (including settlement frameworks or expert-appointment protocols).*
- 3. Names/titles of NHS Resolution staff or case-officers assigned to neurology-recall claims and any relevant terms of reference.*

Our Response

NHS Resolution handles negligence claims on behalf of NHS organisations and independent sector providers of NHS care in England only, not the rest of the UK

As this matter is from Northern Ireland, NHS Resolution was not involved.

To access this information, you may want to contact Department of Health in Northern Ireland. Please see below links with helpful information:

- Neurology Recall Compensation | Department of Health

You can find more information about NHS Resolution and the work we do on our website: About - NHS Resolution.

This concludes our response to your request.

If you are not satisfied with the service that you have received in response to your information request, it is open to you to make a complaint and request a formal review of our decisions. If you choose to do this, you should write to Joanne Appleby, Deputy Data Protection Officer for NHS Resolution, within 28 days of your receipt of this reply. Reviews of decisions made in relation to information requests are carried out by a person who was not involved in the original decision-making about the request.

If you are not content with the outcome of your complaint, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a review of the decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner will not make a decision unless you have exhausted the local complaints procedure. The address of the Information Commissioner's Office is:

Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
