The following information was requested on 15 December 2020:

Could you please provide me with the following information:

For the individual financial years 2012/13 through to 2019/2020 inclusive, how much was provided to each NHS trust in legal fees for coroner's inquests.

I have already been provided with the overall costs per year by NHS resolution, and now just require those to be broken down per NHS trust per year.

This includes representation, preparation and counsel for staff appearing at inquests, as well as the money paid to legal firms for their time on inquest cases.

Could you provide this in a spreadsheet with the following cells per NHS trust.

Year	2012/13	2013/14	2014/15	2015/16	2016/17	2017/2018	2018/2019	2019/20

Our Response

Please find attached the breakdown requested. Please note there is a blank where there is no cost in that year.

For the seven year period between 1 April 2013 and 31 March 2020, a total of £12,285,826 was paid in accordance with the rules of the Clinical Negligence Scheme for Trusts to support trusts at inquests and for associated costs to investigate entitlement to compensation. NHS Resolution has no involvement in any arrangements that an individual trust might make outside of the scheme.

During the same period, payments will also have been made towards costs incurred by families at inquests where these are connected with investigations which lead to a subsequent compensation award.

Central funding available varies year-on-year, depending on the number of claims received and the timings of payments and settlements.

In terms of inquest costs, we only pay those that are deemed payable under our indemnity scheme operating procedures. The trust can fund inquests themselves in many ways, either by their own legal department or via independent arrangements with panel.

As to how trusts record this information, we would expect that individual trust legal departments would hold this information.

If you would like to know how data is categorised in our Claims database please see the following link: Glossary

This concludes our response to your request.

If you are not satisfied with the service that you have received in response to your information request, it is open to you to make a complaint and request a formal review of our decisions. If you choose to do this, you should write to Tinku Mitra, Head of Corporate and Information Governance for NHS Resolution, within 28 days of your receipt of this reply. Reviews of decisions made in relation to information requests are carried out by a person who was not involved in the original decision-making about the request.

If you are not content with the outcome of your complaint, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a review of the decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner will not make a decision unless you have exhausted the local complaints procedure. The address of the Information Commissioner's Office is:
